Through

The Director of Public Instruction,

M A D R A S.

Most Respected Sir,

The humble memorial of M.Raghavendrachar, officiating Music teacher, Government Training School for women, Bellary, most respectfully showeth that

1. The Memorialist was appointed to the post of Music Teacher on the 4th August 1921 of the said school by Miss. Karney, the then Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Bellary, after a thorough examination of his abilities in both instrumental and vocal music and despite the fact that a good many others also applied for the same.

2. The Memorialist has been continuing in the same post to this date, except for a short break of service from the 1st June 1924 to the 12th October -

1924, during which period, the Director of Public Instruction was pleased to have the post unfilled and hold the same in abeyance, presumably to obtain the services of a qualified woman music teacher. This short break of service was not due to his own fault.

3. The Memorialist is thoroughly proficient in both instrumental and vocal music and is, by virtue of his long experience of more than 20 years, most successfully able to impart instructions in violin, veena, flute, drum and other musical instruments, in South Indian and Carnatic music. His capacity, as represented above, has been frequently tested at the periodical instructions of the school and the students who have now undergone training under him haveturned out as good instructors in music in the schools in w hich they are now employed. That the various officers under whom the Memorialist has had the privilege to serve would also bear ample testimony as regards his proficiency in both instrumental and vocal music, as also his capacity to teach the pupils and students. That the Memorialist , in this connection, begs leave submit copies of a few testimonials from leading non-official gentlemen for favour of kind perusal.

4. That the Memorialist has a service of nine years under Government and most respectfully prays that he may be confirmed with retrospective effect in the same post which has been permanently vacant ever since the date of his entertainment, viz., respectfully invites attention to the fact that his appointment in the school is being more or less revived year after year as evidenced by the fact that the Director of Public Instruction has been sanctioning exemption from the age rule on his behalf every year after satisfying himself that no qualified women music teachers are available for the post. The Memorialist begs leave to submit that his appointment is ever risky and his situation precarious, although the authorities have been pleased to sanction the annual increments on his behalf. His present pay in the grade of Rs.45-3-90 is Rs.60/-.

5. That the Memorialist would venture to submit that the authorities have tried their utmost to secure the services of a qualified woman for the post all these nine years and have not been successful in spite of the fact that the vacancy is being advertised in the Gazette year after year. That in view of the fact that qualified women music teachers are not forthcoming all these years and are not likely to be available for some years to come, the Memorialist should not be allowed to suffer in this way and be left ever anxious as regards the non-security of his appointment and would most respectfully pray, therefore, that Government would be pleased to take a sympathetic view and confirm him in the post with retrospective effect, as he has more than the necessary qualifications for the same. That in conclusion the Memorialist prays that his request may be complied with.

The Memorialist begs to remain,

Most Respected Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

ಯು. ರಾಮಲಿಂಗಪ್ಪ.

I have very great pleasure to bear testimony to the versatality of Mr.M.Raghavendra Charlu's talent. I have seen him sing and play on many an occasion. He is specially good at Violin and plays well on Flute and Harmonium. He is one of the best musicians the Ceded Districts can ever feel proud of He is the most proper man to give music lessons in a school for girls, where music is one of the most important items of their curriculum. He has been a tutor to my daughter in music for a long time and thereforeI can speak intimately of his merits as both a Musician and a tutor of music.

"I have known Mr. Mundrigi Raghavendra Charlu, Music Teacher, Government Training School for Mistresses, for over fifteen years, as a first rate Violinist, Good Vocalist. He is not less an adept in handling Harmonium and Flute. He has been a private tutor of many young girls in many respectable families, wherein he has given entire satisfaction. I have enjoyed his music at as many music entertainments both public and private, where he had to be the chief Violin accompaniment to several famous professors of music from South and Mysore and has on all occasions, discharged himself quite creditably to the satisfaction of the audience and the professors. So far I know, he is one of the very few fine professional musicians in these districts. He deserves all encouragement".

Submitted to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

The memorialist is highly proficient in music, both instrumental and vocal. He is one of those who can promote the steady advance in musical culture and practice in these backward districts. As such, he may be regarded as a valuable acquisition to a women's training institution.

Attempts have been made time and again since 1921, to secure a qualified woman for the post but without success.
And it may not be possible
find a suitable candidate the Grade II selects for some years to come.
